Information Technology Program
Certificate Degree
30 Credit Hours

Purpose:

The Information Technology Certificate Program was developed for career-oriented individuals who seek entry-level positions in IT tech support industries. It is designed to provide a thorough background in computer technology, basic troubleshooting and repair, and an introduction to networking concepts.

Support Courses:

EN 101 or EN 101A	English Composition I	3 Credit Hours
MT 121 or MT 121A	College Math for General Education	3 Credit Hours
OR 105	Orientation to Technical Programs	1 Credit Hour
SP 103	Speech Fundamentals	3 Credit Hours

Major Courses:

IT 102	Cyber Law, Ethics, and Culture	3 Credit Hours
IT 104	Using Internet Technology for Research and Productivity	3 Credit Hours
IT 114	Operating System & Networking Fundamentals	3 Credit Hours
IT 180	PC Maintenance	3 Credit Hours
IT 181	Advanced PC Maintenance	3 Credit Hours
IT 182	A+ Lab	2 Credit Hours
Restricted Elective	IT Specialization Course	3 Credit Hours

For more information, please contact:

Guy Lowes, Applied & Industrial Technology Division Head
Rebecca Ferris, Administrative Secretary Senior
Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College
1601 Armory Drive
Williamson, WV 25661
Telephone: (304) 236-7619
Email:
guy.lowes@southernwv.edu,

Information Technology Program
Certificate Degree
30 Credit Hours

rebecca.ferris@southernwv.edu