Dear (First Name),

On January 17, 2021, the U.S. Department of Education notified Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College (Southern) that under Section 314 of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA), 2021, Southern would receive $761,609 to disburse directly to eligible students in the form of cash grants.

Eligibility for all students was verified and grants were processed for 1,077 eligible students totaling $646,200. The refunds are currently being processed and will be sent out via the BankMobile refund method that you chose earlier in the semester (direct deposit or BankMobile VIBE deposit). If you have already set up your BankMobile account, you are all set to receive your funds. If you have not setup your BankMobile account, please contact the Business Office at BusinessOffice@southernwv.edu to request assistance in getting your BankMobile account setup.

The following general rules were applied to distribution of student funds.

- Students must have been enrolled at Southern for the Spring 2021 semester to receive funding.
- Since no application was required, students with exceptional financial need were identified by their Expected Family Contribution (EFC) score on their federal financial aid application (FAFSA) for the 2020-2021 academic year.
- Students who did not complete a FAFSA were awarded after students with exceptional need.
- Transient students did not receive funding because they will receive funding from their home institutions.

You are eligible for $600 in CRRSAA Emergency Grant funds. Your funds will be released to you regardless of whether you owe any balance to Southern for current or future classes. This grant provides emergency funds to students for their expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child-care expenses.

The refunds will take a short amount of time to process, but we anticipate all direct deposit students will receive their funds by "Date". If you do not receive your funds by "Date" you may contact the Business Office at businessoffice@southernwv.edu.
