

Health Care Professional Program

The Medical Laboratory Technology program at Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College exists to prepare individuals to pursue AAS degrees in one of the AH professions or Nursing.

Mission: to prepare individuals to pursue AAS degrees in one of the AH professions or Nursing

Goals: successful completion of general education requirements (ex. English, math, psychology, sociology), as well as restricted electives that focus on specific skill sets and/or certifications.

Program Outcomes:

1. Ability to use critical thinking in a variety of healthcare settings.
2. Ability to apply mathematical reasoning in a variety of healthcare settings.
3. Ability to effectively communicate in a variety of healthcare settings.
4. Be mindful/respectful of diverse populations in healthcare settings.