ORIGINATION: August 16, 2011

EFFECTIVE: November 30, 2017

REVIEWED: ~~December 2, 2021~~ February 96, 2024

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to establish basic guidelines and standards for admissions at Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College.

SECTION 2. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

- 2.1 This policy is applicable to all citizens seeking admission into Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS

- 3.1 Regular Students (Degree Seeking Students) - Individuals with a high school diploma or appropriate high school assessment, such as General Education Diploma (GED) or Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC), who are seeking a certificate and/or associate degree.
- 3.2 Re-entry Students - Students who interrupt their studies by failing to register and attend classes during a fall or spring term and wish to re-enter the College.
- 3.3 Non-degree Seeking Students - Students who take credit courses for personal enrichment, job improvement, or other reasons and are not seeking a degree or certificate.
- 3.4 Transfer Students - Students who have attended other accredited post-secondary institutions.
- 3.5 Transient Students - Students who are officially enrolled and in good academic standing at other post-secondary institutions and want to enroll for courses at Southern.
- 3.6 Early Entry High School Students - Students still enrolled in high school who may enroll in courses at Southern provided they meet course prerequisites and complete the admission procedures. This includes dual credit students.

- 3.7 Conditional Admission Students - Persons eighteen years of age or older who do not have a high school diploma or appropriate high school assessment, such as General Education Diploma (GED) or Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC), may be admitted and enrolled in classes on a conditional basis. Their progress and credit hours earned shall be regularly evaluated.
- 3.8 Home School Students - For purposes of admission to Southern, home school students with appropriate documentation of high school assessment, such as General Education Diploma (GED) or Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC) will be admitted as degree seeking students.

SECTION 4. POLICY

- 4.1 Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College is an “open admissions” institution and supports the philosophy that residents should have access to higher education opportunities commensurate with their abilities and interests.
- 4.2 Admission to Southern is open to persons age eighteen and older and able to benefit from study at the community college level. Admission may be available to persons under age eighteen with the permission of the Chief Academic Officer. This policy provides specific information related to admission requirements for the various classification of students.

SECTION 5. BACKGROUND OR EXCLUSIONS

- 5.1 Admission to Southern does not imply eligibility for, nor guarantee admission to, any specific program of study for which more stringent admission requirements are established.

SECTION 6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 6.1 Those who possess a high school diploma or appropriate high school equivalency assessment, such as GED or TASC, may enroll as certificate degree or associate degree-seeking students.
- 6.2 Other persons may enroll as certificate degree or associate degree-seeking students on an ability to benefit basis, but shall be regularly evaluated to determine whether their performance indicates an ability to continue their studies.
- 6.3 Students seeking transfer admission or readmission to a community and technical college must meet the institution’s basic admission standards.
- 6.4 Early admission standards for high school students enrolling in community colleges are subject to the requirements of Section 135-19-6 of Title 135, Procedural Rule, Series 19, Guidelines for Offering Early Enrollment Courses for High School Students, of the West Virginia Council for Community and Technical College Education.
- 6.5 Copies of high school transcripts, health records and transcripts of previous college work are not required for admission to community colleges, but any student seeking academic credit, a certificate, and/or an associate degree must submit the appropriate high school equivalency assessment, such as GED or TASC, scores or high school transcripts and/or previous college transcripts.
- 6.6 Participation in certain federal, state, and/or institutional financial aid programs or admission to specific academic programs do require copies of high school transcripts, GED scores and/or prior college work be provided. Individuals are encouraged to check with the appropriate institutional officials to determine the documents required for participation in, or admission to such programs.

- 6.7 Official transcripts must be provided, if a student has earned credits at another institution.
- 6.8 In addition to general institutional admission requirements, certain limited enrollment programs have specific admission requirements. Those applying for admission to these programs must meet the general admission requirements as well as those of the specific program.
- 6.9 State law provides that any male person who has attained the age of eighteen (18) years of age may not enroll in a state-supported institution of post-secondary education unless he is in compliance with the Military Selective Service Act.
- 6.10 A male person may not receive a loan, grant, scholarship, or other financial assistance for post-secondary higher education funded by state revenue, including federal funds or gifts and grants accepted by this State, or receive a student loan guaranteed by the State unless he is in compliance with the Military Selective Service Act.

6.106.11 Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution and does not discriminate based on race, sex, gender identity, pregnancy, sexual orientation, age, disability, veteran status, religion, color, or age in admission, employment, or educational programs and activities; nor does it discriminate based on genetic information in employment or employee health benefits. Faculty, staff, students, and applicants are protected from retaliation for making complaints or assisting in discrimination investigations. This nondiscrimination policy also applies to all education programs, to admission, to employment, and to other related activities covered under Title IX, which prohibits sex discrimination in higher education. Southern will take steps to ensure that a lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in the college's CTC offerings. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College also neither affiliates with nor grants recognition to any individual, group, or organization having policies that discriminate based on race, ethnicity, sex, color, creed, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation or gender orientation or expression, physical or mental disability, marital or family status, pregnancy, genetic information, veteran status, service in the uniformed services, ancestry, or national origin. Inquiries regarding compliance with any state or federal nondiscrimination law may be addressed to Affirmative Action Officer, Ms. Debbie C. Dingess, Chief Human Resources Officer, Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College, 100 College Drive, Logan, WV 25601, 304-896-7408; Title IX Coordinator, Mr. Darrell Taylor, Chief Student Services Officer, Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College, 100 College Drive, Logan, WV 25601, 304-896-7432; or Section 504 Coordinator, Ms. Dianna Toler, Director of Student Success, Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College, 100 College Drive, Logan, WV 25601, 304-896-7315. TTY 304-792-7054 may be used to communicate with any office or employee of the College.

SECTION 7. RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROCEDURES

- 7.1 The Registrar's Office representative is responsible for evaluating the validity of high school diplomas should there be reason to believe the diploma is not valid.
- 7.1.1 The representative may check with the high school to confirm the validity of the student's diploma.
- 7.1.2 The representative may confirm with the relevant department or agency in the state in which the secondary school is located that the secondary school is recognized as a provider of secondary school education.
- 7.1.3 Diplomas from unaccredited high schools may be accepted as valid if the department of education of the state in which the high school is located has jurisdiction of the high school and confirms validity.
