BOARD OF GOVERNORS
SCP-5074

SUBJECT: Selection, Adoption, Use and Sale of Textbooks and Other Course Materials

REFERENCE: West Virginia Code §18B-10-14; West Virginia Council for Community and Technical College Education, Title 135, Procedural Rule, Series 51, Bookstores and Textbooks; Public Law 110-315, Higher Education Opportunity Act, August 2008

ORIGINATION: June 2010

EFFECTIVE: January 15, 2021

REVIEWED: May 7, 2020

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

1.1 The purpose of this policy is to establish and communicate the rule of Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College regarding the selection, adoption, use and sale of textbooks and other course materials for all credit-based College courses and programs in compliance with state and federal requirements.

SECTION 2. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

2.1 This policy applies to the selection, adoption, and use of textbooks and other course materials by faculty in all academic units, departments, programs and/or courses, and addresses the sale of the adopted textbooks and materials by bookstores operated and/or contracted by Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS

3.1 Official Textbook List - A document used on a college-wide basis for the ordering of course textbooks and supplemental materials. All sections will use the textbooks and supplemental materials listed on the Official Textbook List.

SECTION 4. POLICY

4.1 It is the policy of Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College (College) to comply with the mandates of Title 135, Procedural Rule, Series 51, Bookstores and Textbooks of the West Virginia Council for Community and Technical College Education (Council) and the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) regarding the selection, adoption, use and sale of textbooks and other course materials as well as the regulations pertaining to the operation of bookstores.

4.2 Employees of the College will comply with the above cited mandates and the institutional procedures established in respect to the selection, adoption and use of textbooks and other course materials for all academic credit-based courses offered by the College at all campuses, instructional sites and course locations.

4.3 Employees of the College, or those employed by contractors for purposes of operating College bookstores, shall comply with the above cited mandates and the institutional procedures established in respect to the sale of textbooks and other course materials.

SECTION 5. BACKGROUND OR EXCLUSIONS

- 5.1 Series 51 requires the Board of Governors to promulgate a rule that fully and adequately addresses the mandates in West Virginia Code §18B-10-14 regarding the actions of employees of the institution in the selection and adoption of textbooks and course materials. These mandates include:
- 5.1.1 The faculty must commit, to the maximum percent practicable, to a selection procedure that will ensure certain basic textbooks will be utilized for a reasonable number of consecutive years without new editions being adopted unless earlier editions are not easily utilized in the courses.
 - 5.1.2 The faculty or any employee is prohibited from receiving any payment, loan, subscription, advance, deposit or money, service, benefit or anything of value, at present or promised, as an inducement for requiring students to purchase a specific textbook or supplemental course material.
 - 5.1.3 The faculty or any employee may receive royalties or other compensation from such sales that include the faculty member or other employee's own writing or work.
 - 5.1.4 The faculty or any employee may receive free sample copies, instructors' copies, and instructional materials for review, but shall not resell those items and retain the proceeds.
 - 5.1.5 The faculty or any other employee is prohibited from requiring for any course a textbook that includes his or her own writing or workbook if the textbook or workbook incorporates either detachable worksheets or workbook-style pages intended to be written on or removed from the book.
- 5.2 In addition, Series 51, requires the institutional rule to address the mandates of West Virginia Code §18B-10-14 related to the actions of employees and bookstores operated or contracted by the College regarding the sale of textbooks and course materials. These mandates require that the institution:
- 5.2.1 Provide specific mechanisms to minimize the costs to students for textbooks and course materials.
 - 5.2.2 Commit, to the maximum percent practicable, the number of used books the bookstore will repurchase from students at the end of each semester.
 - 5.2.3 Commit, to the maximum percent practicable, a range of percentage of repurchase prices based on the new textbook price.
- 5.3 Series 51 also requires that institutional policy comply with the mandates of Public Law 110-315, the Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 14, 2008 in the selection, adoption, and use of textbooks and course materials. This law requires that:
- 5.3.1 Prior to considering a specific textbook for selection, adoption, and/or use, a faculty may require that textbook publishers provide, in writing:
 - 5.3.1.1 The price of the textbook and/or supplemental course materials to be considered;
 - 5.3.1.2 The copyright dates of the three previous editions, if any;
 - 5.3.1.3 A description of substantial content revisions from previous editions;
 - 5.3.1.4 Whether the textbook is available in other lower cost formats and, if so, the price to the institution and the general public;

5.3.1.5 The price of textbooks unbundled from supplemental materials; and

5.3.1.6 The same information, to the extent practicable, for custom textbooks.

5.3.2 No employee shall select or assign a textbook or supplemental course material if the publisher has not supplied the required information in Section 5.3.1, if requested, in writing.

SECTION 6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Institutional procedures for the selection, adoption and use of textbooks and/or supplemental course materials shall be developed through an inclusive process under the direction of the Chief Academic Officer. Such procedures shall include the following:

6.1.1 Firm deadlines for the faculty to be assigned to courses.

6.1.2 Firm deadlines for the selection, adoption and placement of orders with the College bookstore for textbooks and supplemental course materials to be used in each course.

6.1.3 For deadlines not met, to the maximum extent practicable, there shall be a mechanism in place reasonably calculated to ensure that used textbooks, if available, can be located and purchased by the time of enrollment each semester. This mechanism should include, but is not limited to, such measures as default selection of certain textbooks, continuing to use the previous textbook, or having the appropriate Academic Dean select the textbook. Any such textbook default selection must be strictly enforced and the faculty shall not be allowed to change the selection.

6.1.4 Guidelines to be used by faculty in the selection, adoption and use of textbooks and supplementary course materials include the following:

6.1.4.1 The faculty must consider more than one textbook publisher;

6.1.4.2 The faculty must compare prices for textbooks and supplemental course materials in their consideration for selection and adoption;

6.1.4.3 A simple form stating that the required information as stated in section 5.3.1 was or was not provided by the publisher must be submitted to the appropriate Academic Dean in support of the adoption of any textbook or supplemental course material;

6.1.4.4 Procedures for textbook selection and adoption must include a requirement that a textbook be used for a minimum of three academic years before any change is considered, to the extent practicable;

6.1.4.5 Textbooks and supplemental course materials from publishers who refuse to submit the required, written information by established deadlines shall not be considered for future selection, adoption, and/or use for a minimum of three academic years from the date of such failure;

6.1.4.6 Discourage the selection and adoption of textbooks in which less than 50 percent of the content will be used in the course unless the same textbook will be used in subsequent courses;

- 6.1.4.7 Encourage the use of textbooks that have low-cost alternative editions available;
 - 6.1.4.8 Encourage the selection of textbooks it is believed will not be revised by the publisher within the next three (3) years;
 - 6.1.4.9 Encourage the use of consortia which make available open source textbooks or course materials to the faculty and students free or at low cost; and,
 - 6.1.4.10 Encourage the use of various technology innovations for the provision of textbooks and course materials such as electronic textbooks, on-line textbooks, print-on-demand services, open source materials, and institutionally produced materials.
- 6.2 Institutional procedures for sharing of information with currently admitted and potential students regarding all required and/or recommended textbooks and supplemental course materials shall be developed through an inclusive process under the direction of the Chief Finance Officer. Such procedures shall include the following:
- 6.2.1 Information on all required or recommended textbooks and supplemental materials shall be prominently posted in a central location on each campus, in a prominent central location on each campus and on the institution’s website prior to the designated registration period for each semester.
 - 6.2.2 The information provided shall include the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) and retail price.
 - 6.2.3 If the ISBN is not available, then the author, title, publisher and copyright date shall be provided.
 - 6.2.4 If the information cited in 6.2.2 and 6.2.3 is not available, then the designation “To be Determined” shall be used.
- 6.3 The College shall include a link on its website for any provisions for rental of textbooks, purchase of used textbooks, textbook repurchase or buyback, and any alternative content delivery programs available.

SECTION 7. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 7.1 The Chief Academic Officer, through a collaborative and inclusive process, shall be responsible for developing academic unit, division, department, and/or program procedures and assigning responsibilities for the implementation of all sections of this policy applicable to faculty and other employees under the direction of the Academic Affairs Unit.
- 7.2 In addition to the requirements set forth in previous sections of this policy, the Chief Academic Officer shall:
 - 7.2.1 Include training for all faculty on textbook selection and strategies that guarantee high quality course materials at the most affordable cost;
 - 7.2.2 As appointed by the Chief Academic Officer, an Academic Dean will serve as a liaison with textbook publishers and be responsible for dissemination of relevant information to the faculty on textbook strategies and education and training opportunities regarding textbook selection; and
 - 7.2.3 Enforce the policies of the Board of Governors concerning textbook selection, adoption, and use.
- 7.3 The Chief Academic Officer, in conjunction with the Academic Deans, shall compile and maintain an Official

Textbook List. The Official Textbook List will be utilized for all courses on a college-wide basis. The Official Textbook List will be reviewed and updated at least annually. The Official Textbook List will be used to submit textbook information to the Bookstore.

- 7.4 The Chief Finance Officer, through a collaborative and inclusive process, shall be responsible for developing procedures and assigning responsibilities for the implementation of the sections of this policy applicable to the bookstore and other employees under the direction of the Finance Unit.
- 7.5 In addition to the requirements set forth in previous sections of this policy, the Chief Finance Officer shall:
- 7.5.1 Direct an examination of the feasibility of operating a textbook rental program;
 - 7.5.2 Establish a permanent Textbook Affordability Committee consisting of a representative from the faculty, students, administration, and bookstore. The Textbook Affordability Committee shall:
 - 7.5.2.1 Meet periodically, but at least annually;
 - 7.5.2.2 Advise the Faculty Senate, Student Government Association(s), Administration, and Board of Governors on affordability issues and initiatives, textbook selection guidelines and procedures, and educational opportunities;
 - 7.5.2.3 Meet annually with the Board of Governors to make recommendations and provide reports it may have generated with copies to be forwarded to the Chancellor of the West Virginia Community and Technical College System.
 - 7.5.2.4 Ensure that the College's bookstores minimize the costs to students of purchasing educational materials;
 - 7.5.2.5 Ensure appropriate, high quality educational materials are selected by course instructors;
 - 7.5.2.6 Encourage and incentivize the use of previous or older versions of basic educational materials to the extent those older versions are available and less costly to students and remain relevant, high quality educational materials with up-to-date information and content;
 - 7.5.2.7 Require the repurchase and resale of educational materials on a College-wide basis; and
 - 7.5.2.8 Provide for the use of certain basic educational materials for a reasonable number of years.

SECTION 8. CANCELLATION

- 8.1 SCP-3780, Textbook Selection Policy, and SCP-5075, Bookstore Textbook Procedures

SECTION 9. REVIEW STATEMENT

- 9.1 This policy shall be reviewed on a regular basis to comply with any future federal mandates with a time frame for review to be determined by the President or the President's designee.
